

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A theatre show that explores the biggest question of all:
“What’s the point?”

16–18 Jan 2025, NoName Theatre

“★★★★ Startling and ambitious”
– Get Your Coats On

King Solomon had it all:

700 wives, gold in the billions and the power of a whole kingdom. He studied the stars, penned poetry and proverbs, bashed out businesses, whimsied over wisdom. And he was bored. Deeply bored. The kind of bored that only a man with too much time and money on his hands can be. None of it satisfied...

Well described as Blackadder meets the Bible, Life Under The Sun – Part 1 is a one man show based on the book of Ecclesiastes – a black comedy featuring underpants, pompous man-servants, self-deprecating witticisms, an existential crisis and one giant hangover...

The show is written and performed by Stephen Bathurst, a dramatist, actor and 13-year veteran of the European stage and screen. Strangers & Exiles is solo theatre: one-man, alone on stage, telling a story, playing all the characters, even being the scenery, often all at the same time!

Life Under The Sun – Part 1 is now being performed in Helsinki for the first time, with three performances in English and one in Finnish. Previous performances include the UK, Sweden, Norway, Germany, Australia and Canada.

Life Under The Sun – Part 1

presented by Strangers & Exiles at the NoName Theatre, Helsinki

IN ENGLISH: 16, 17 & 18 January at 7 pm

IN FINNISH: 18 January at 5 pm

Accreditation: producer@finnbritplayers.com

More info: nonametheatre.fi / www.strangersandexiles.net

Social media: @nonametheatre_helsinki @strangersnexiles

The NoName Theatre is an intimate blackbox theatre in downtown Helsinki that focuses on performances and events in English. Our mission is to promote theatrical and spoken-word performances in English and other minority languages in Finland.

NONAME
THEATRE